It's Recruitment Time

Applications now being accepted for Leadership Premier 2020

Take your place! Additional details about our programs and application-related forms may be found at our website here.

Deadline to apply: May 20, 2019

Thank you to the Mutiny Pirate Bar for recently hosting LHC and guests who learned more about our Leadership Premier 2020 program. If you missed this event, or know someone who may be interested in applying to our program, an Informational Recruitment Breakfast is scheduled for May 3 at Loyola University Maryland's Columbia campus. There is no cost to attend, however, pre-registration is required - please click here.

Around the Community

Build a playground in one day! The PHILLIPS Programs for Children & Families is seeking volunteers to build a playground at their Laurel Campus on May 22. For more information, contact Debi Alexander, director of development, at 703-941-8810 or email - Debi.Alexander@phillipsprograms.org.

The Department of Health and Human Services, in partnership with the Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Laboratory, will be offering a Bombing Protection Awareness Course for business owners and operators, facility managers and safety personnel. This no-cost training opportunity offers a forum to hear about the current Improvised Explosive Device (IED) threat, as well as discuss vulnerabilities, consequences and opportunities to mitigate the threat at local businesses here in Maryland. For more information on this course and registration details, click here.

Encore Howard County (EHC) is an emerging community-based network focused on adults between 50 and 75 years of age who are planning for or exploring their next life chapter. To learn more about EHC, please join co-founders Mary Thompson, LP '15, Pat Sasse, LP '10, and Dr. Elizabeth Mahler for an evening of networking, a light dinner and panel discussion Thursday, April 25 at Historic Belmont Manor. For more information and to register, click here.

Howard County General Hospital volunteer Community Companions needed. If helping those in need is your passion, then being a Community Companion is an ideal volunteer opportunity for you! Community Companions provide compassionate non-medical support services (e.g. transportation and companionship) to the members of HCGH's Member Care Support Network, who are recovering from a health crisis such as a hospitalization. Learn more and apply online or call 410-720-8781.

Howard County Public School System seeks citizen members for policy development committees. Citizens are invited to take an active role in developing school system policies as members of policy development/revision committees. Membership is sought for the following policy development/revision committees:

- Policy 7020 Nepotism
- Policy 7110 Annual Leave for Administrative Personnel
- Policy 8050 Teaching Controversial Issues

Applications due April 8. For more information, contact Brian Bassett via email or by phone at 410-313-1505.

Howard County Recreation and Parks is proud to sponsor the Community Sports Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame serves as a public museum to educate the public about cultural, historical and personal contributions and achievements in Howard County community sports. Nominations are being accepted to honor individuals who have gained notable and/or have made substantial contributions to Howard County citizens in local community recreational sports. Nomination deadline is April 15. For information, visit www.howardcountymd.gov/halloffame.
