

Leadership U Program Overview

Leadership U (LU) is a unique leadership development and community service program for Howard County (HoCo), Maryland, high school sophomores. Eligible students must live or go to school in HoCo. Starting in the summer following the sophomore year, this 4-month program fosters leadership growth and civic engagement through three pillar areas:

- ❖ Education on Community Issues
- ❖ Student-Led Community Service Projects
- ❖ Development of Student's Unique Leadership Skills

Students appreciate our program's ability to foster confidence, fortify leadership and problem-solving skills, and expand their professional networks through connections with numerous community leaders. Participants initiate impactful projects, contributing to the betterment of our local community while forming lasting friendships with peers from across the county, forging connections they might never have encountered otherwise.

Upon graduating from LU, students frequently continue their commitment to community service through active volunteering, assume pivotal roles in school leadership, and engage in advisory positions such as the HC Commission for Women, Human Rights Commission, #One Howard, Recreation and Parks, HCPSS Advisory Committees, and more. Many find their amplified leadership capabilities invaluable as they transition to college and pursue future endeavors.

Program Curriculum:

Summer Week of HoCo Community Learning

LU participants visit locations across the county for hands-on learning on subjects such as:

- Team Building
- Healthcare
- Government
- Needs of Special Populations such as 50+ Seniors
- Law Enforcement
- Diversity in the County
- Health & Human Services
- Community Non-Profits and needs of the county

Community Service Project Sunday Sessions

After the culmination of the Summer Week, the LU class undergoes division into 7 teams dedicated to executing student-developed community projects to address identified community needs. Assisted by adult volunteer mentors, all students convene for nine Sunday afternoon sessions (twice a month) from August to December, entirely dedicated to advancing their projects. Throughout these gatherings, the cultivation of leadership skills persists, complemented by guest speakers from the community. Abundant opportunities are provided for students to apply and enhance their leadership abilities within their groups and the broader community while actively implementing these impactful community service projects.

3D-HC – Dig Deep and Discover Howard County

On a weekday that Howard County Public Schools are closed, students visit a Howard County non-profit to learn about leadership and nonprofit operations and participate in hands-on service.

Graduation

Students present their projects to their families, friends, school administrators, Leadership Howard County board, and members.
